

PARAS SAHU

FULLSTACK WEB DEVELOPER

PERSONAL PROFILE

Innovative Full-Stack Developer specializing in building scalable Node.js architectures and leading enterprise system modernizations. Adept at leveraging Generative AI to accelerate development cycles, notably migrating legacy middleware into high-performing APIs. Extensive experience integrating complex enterprise platforms—including Salesforce, Dynamics 365, SAP, and secure OAuth/SAML gateways—to deliver robust solutions that streamline business operations and drive growth.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Software Engineer

Capgemini | 9 Jun 2025 - Present

- Spearheaded the end-to-end modernization of enterprise integrations by migrating legacy MuleSoft APIs to a scalable Node.js architecture.
- Leveraged Generative AI tools to automate the code conversion process, significantly reducing manual development effort and accelerating the migration timeline.
- Successfully migrated and re-architected complex backend integrations, ensuring seamless connectivity with SAP systems, SAP HANA databases, and external REST APIs.
- Maintained zero system downtime and ensured data integrity during the transition of critical business workflows.

Node Developer

AROSYS / VYAKAR TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD. | 1 April 2021 -22

May 2025 (payroll name)

4 Years 1 Months

- Deconstructed a monolithic backend structure into modular microservices, significantly improving deployment speed and system maintainability.
- Engineered seamless integrations with enterprise scheduling and communication tools, migrating Google Calendar, Microsoft Calendar, Slack, and Twilio APIs to the modern backend framework.
- Fortified system security by developing strictly governed, secure REST APIs equipped with modern authentication (OAuth/JWT) for all external data exchanges.
- Enhanced overall system performance during the microservices transition by identifying and rewriting inefficient MySQL queries, resulting in faster data processing for all external APIs.
